NEWBERRY, S.C. - Arkansas Tech quarterback Nick Graziano and North Alabama linebacker Michael Johnson have been named the 2009 Daktronics Super Region 2 Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, as selected by members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Johnson, Tusculum tight end Jarrell NeSmith, Carson-Newman running back Buck Wakefield, Delta State linebacker Lardester Hicks-Green and North Alabama punter Will Batson all repeated as first team all-region selections. North Greenville defensive end Andre Bernardi, a 2006 first team honoree, earned all-region honors for the third year, as did Tusculum punter John Gregory.

First team all-region selections are eligible for the 2009 Daktronics All-American team, and top vote-getters at each position are marked with an asterisk.

Regional finalist North Alabama led the way with nine total selections, including six first-teamers. Fellow regional finalists Carson-Newman had five total selections, as did playoff teams Arkansas Tech and West Alabama.

The team is sponsored by Daktronics, Inc., an acknowledged world leader in scoring, timing and programmable display systems for virtually every sport at every level of competition. Voting for the all-region and All-American teams is powered by ATHLETICSITE.COM.
